

I Have a Dream...

Use Student Journal Entry 18 to give a reading assignment regarding the Lincoln Memorial and Draper's 1963 speech. Review parts of the speech below, then use the next page to identify the words.

These words that we say, the words that we see, the words that we hear, the words that we know, "We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal."

These words that we know, the words that we see, the words that we hear, the words that we know, "We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal."

These words that we know, the words that we see, the words that we hear, the words that we know, "We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal."

These words that we know, the words that we see, the words that we hear, the words that we know, "We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal."

These words that we know, the words that we see, the words that we hear, the words that we know, "We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal."

These words that we know, the words that we see, the words that we hear, the words that we know, "We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal."

These words that we know, the words that we see, the words that we hear, the words that we know, "We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal."

These words that we know, the words that we see, the words that we hear, the words that we know, "We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal."

These words that we know, the words that we see, the words that we hear, the words that we know, "We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal."

These words that we know, the words that we see, the words that we hear, the words that we know, "We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal."

These words that we know, the words that we see, the words that we hear, the words that we know, "We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal."

