

I Have a Dream...

Use Student Journal Entry 18 to give a reading assignment regarding an the Lincoln Memorial and Dr. King's 1963 "I Have a Dream" speech. Read the speech below, then use the next page to identify the words.

“I have a dream that one day this nation will rise up and live out the true meaning of its creed: ‘We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal.’”

“I have a dream that one day even the sweltering heat of June will give way to cold, sunny days with the promise of hopeful change, when all citizens live together in brotherhood.”

“I have a dream that one day this nation will rise up and live out the true meaning of its creed: ‘We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal.’”

“I have a dream that one day even the sweltering heat of June will give way to cold, sunny days with the promise of hopeful change, when all citizens live together in brotherhood.”

“I have a dream that one day even the sweltering heat of June will give way to cold, sunny days with the promise of hopeful change, when all citizens live together in brotherhood.”

“I have a dream that one day even the sweltering heat of June will give way to cold, sunny days with the promise of hopeful change, when all citizens live together in brotherhood.”

“I have a dream that one day even the sweltering heat of June will give way to cold, sunny days with the promise of hopeful change, when all citizens live together in brotherhood.”

“I have a dream that one day even the sweltering heat of June will give way to cold, sunny days with the promise of hopeful change, when all citizens live together in brotherhood.”

“I have a dream that one day even the sweltering heat of June will give way to cold, sunny days with the promise of hopeful change, when all citizens live together in brotherhood.”

