

I Have a Dream...

Use Student Journal Entry 18 to give a reading assignment regarding the Lincoln Memorial and Draper's 1963 speech. Review parts of the speech below, then use the next page to identify the words.

These words that we say, the words that we see, the words that we know of the greatness of the dream: "We shall never separate the white man and the black man as second-class citizens."

These words that we say, the words that we see, the words that we know of the greatness of the dream: "We shall never separate the white man and the black man as second-class citizens."

These words that we say, the words that we see, the words that we know of the greatness of the dream: "We shall never separate the white man and the black man as second-class citizens."

These words that we say, the words that we see, the words that we know of the greatness of the dream: "We shall never separate the white man and the black man as second-class citizens."

These words that we say, the words that we see, the words that we know of the greatness of the dream: "We shall never separate the white man and the black man as second-class citizens."

These words that we say, the words that we see, the words that we know of the greatness of the dream: "We shall never separate the white man and the black man as second-class citizens."

These words that we say, the words that we see, the words that we know of the greatness of the dream: "We shall never separate the white man and the black man as second-class citizens."

These words that we say, the words that we see, the words that we know of the greatness of the dream: "We shall never separate the white man and the black man as second-class citizens."

These words that we say, the words that we see, the words that we know of the greatness of the dream: "We shall never separate the white man and the black man as second-class citizens."

These words that we say, the words that we see, the words that we know of the greatness of the dream: "We shall never separate the white man and the black man as second-class citizens."

These words that we say, the words that we see, the words that we know of the greatness of the dream: "We shall never separate the white man and the black man as second-class citizens."

