

Negative Prefixes

It is easy to understand why a negative prefix changes a word's meaning to the opposite of what it was.

A negative prefix changes a word's meaning to the opposite of what it was.

PUT THE PROPER NEGATIVE PREFIXES (DIS-, -DIS-, -IM-, -IN-) TO THE WORDS IN FRONT OF THE ADJECTIVES.

1. happy : John was punished because of his _____ habits.
2. possible : It was quite _____ for us to drive all the way from Paris to London in one day.
3. successful : He made an _____ attempt to climb the highest mountain in the world.
4. responsible : To take the bus is not safe with four children under the age of ten and without the parents in front and quite _____ of them.
5. appropriate : The dress she was wearing was quite _____ for the occasion.
6. polite : It was very _____ of her to insult his mother in front of his aunt.
7. educated : Because of the _____ people, our country is not developing properly.
8. honest : His politician for was _____ and it was not long before nobody trusted him.
9. perfect : The goods were _____ and had to be returned to the store we bought them from.
10. satisfied : She was _____ with her life and decided that things had to change.
11. useful : Our food is so _____ that even a tree does not grow.
12. rational : His _____ questions annoyed his teacher.