

Grammar Practice for All Levels I

Find the subject, verb(s) and adjectives, and underline each of each sentence. Circle the word and write "sub" for subject, "verb" for verb(s), "adj" for adjective, and "PR" for prepositional phrase.

Ex: These people are never wrong, because they are so intelligent.

1. Students always love doing their difficult homework.

2. These excellent artists show the students' names on the board.

3. Books are really interesting, but sometimes are too silly too.

4. Students hardly do their homework on time.

5. Not feeling their bad homework, the teacher was punished by her parents.

6. Students almost always hide in the dark and wait for food.

7. She moved quickly, and she is amazingly funny.

8. Talking is a very interesting activity.

9. Not feeling more at all, she was still hungry.