He was very kind.  gave the  some feathers.  also helped the friend.  did the same. Small  wanted to give feathers to the  but they had not them. So, they ran to mother  and ask her to help. She agreed. The next day was very nice. The  shone brightly. Animals gathered under the  in the yard. They helped the  to stick the feathers and he became beautiful. His eyes were happy.  said thank you and his chicks turned red.
