

Reported comments and requests (direct requests)

Turn the following comments and requests into indirect speech.

John said to me... (in class, two days later)

1. Don't use my computer without you first! your homework.

2. Bring your brother with his homework.

3. Take your dog for a walk.

4. Please, get some messages from the bank here.

5. Can you make some copies of this?

Mary said to me... (at home, two days)

1. Why aren't you in bed? get some good sleep.

2. Don't give my glasses without you first! and you first! your homework.

3. Bring your sister with her homework, please.

4. Can you make my flight?

5. Feed your sister's dog.

Turn the sentences into direct speech.

1. The girl told John to please her when he goes to her house.

2. My friend said not to use her mobile phone to make calls.

3. The teacher told the students to write their homework after class.

4. The child asked the dog to come to give her a big piece of meat.

5. The police officer told the man to park his car on the left side of the street.

6. My friend said not to forget my homework for me.

7. The doctor advised the patient not to take his blood pressure.
