

Anti-Drug Legislation Matrix

Complete the matrix by selecting three states to add below Federal. Then, answer each question listed in the first row for each corresponding law.

	Is marijuana a illegal?	What are the penalties for possession of cocaine?	What are the penalties for possession of heroin?	What are the penalties for possession of prescription drugs?	What is the blood alcohol level for a driving while intoxicated (DWI) or driving under the influence (DUI) crime?	Is there extreme DWI or DUI? If so, what is the punishment?
Federal
Florida	YES	This also depends on the amount. You can be charged with a Felony and/or prison time.	This also depends on the amount. You can be charged with a Felony and/or prison time.	Third degree felony	.08	Yes and the loss of your license, probation, along with increased fines, mandatory counseling, and or increased jail time.
Hawaii	YES	Class A, B, and C Felony	- Class A, B, and C Felony Charge.	Fines and possible jail time	.08	Yes and the loss of your license, probation, along with increased fines, mandatory counseling, and or increased jail time.
Kentucky	YES	It depends on the amount that you are in possession.	Class D Felony; Subsequent 1 offenses: Class C Felony	Fines and you may be required to serve up to three years	.08	Yes and the loss of your license, probation, along with increased