

Student's name: _____ Partner's name: _____

Name: _____ Date: _____

Take turns asking each question and accurately record your partner's answers to complete sentences. Interview your partner in a professional manner and the partner should treat it as one of the questions. Here is the following rubric for the assignment.

Rating	A	B	C	D
Interview	All the answers are to complete sentences. Capitalization Spelled out full Used time very words Thought of your own questions. Answers: focused, professional, and not shy.	Most of the answers are complete sentences. Capitalization Spelled out full Used time rarely Thought of your own questions. OK on structure! Appropriate during the interview.	Some of the answers are complete sentences. Capitalization Spelled out full Most of the time only one word Thought up at least one question.	Participated in the activity. Completed other answers correctly. Spelled out full -- more than ten words.

What are your three codes of life or values that you want to live by? _____
 _____ and _____

What is it important to stand for or for your principles that you believe in? _____

Where should you demonstrate these standards? _____

How do these values assist in making your life better? _____

How do integrity or your life make a difference? _____

Can you think of anyone special or famous that has your same codes of life? _____
