

Name: _____

Date: _____

Book: Parts of Speech, Clauses, Setting, and Plot

1. What is a clause?

- A. an adverbial condition (being)
- B. a word or descriptive without adjective
- C. a person, place, thing, or idea
- D. a word or descriptive with

6. Circle the noun(s) in this sentence:

My father usually ate the same pasta.

2. What is a verb?

- A. an adverbial condition (being)
- B. a word or descriptive without adjective
- C. a person, place, thing, or idea
- D. a word or descriptive with

7. Circle the verb(s) in this sentence:

My mother's excellent tomatoes are divided to .

3. What is an adjective?

- A. an adverbial condition (being)
- B. a word or descriptive without adjective
- C. a person, place, thing, or idea
- D. a word or descriptive with

8. Circle the adjective(s) in this sentence:

My mother's big potatoes are not big.

4. What is an adverb?

- A. an adverbial condition (being)
- B. a word or descriptive without adjective
- C. a person, place, thing, or idea
- D. a word or descriptive with

9. Circle the adverb(s) in this sentence:

My mom walked carefully down the hill.