

Sentence Fragments Worksheet 2

Identify and correct the sentence fragments in the following paragraph:

Getting married is a huge step in anyone's life. Because it involves a whole series of changes. Often newlyweds face challenges with finances. One partner may want to spend, spend, spend. While the other wants to save. Having a successful marriage. Takes a lot of patience, also. There will be ups and downs. When children come into the picture. Often children, although a blessing, create problems. The married couple may have less time to spend with each other. Because their children require constant attention. Especially newborns. Despite these problems, marriage and family life can be a wonderful experience for those willing to work hard.
