

How to Draw a Fist

Start with a large circle. Below draw two lines for the wrist and forearm. One line will be directly below the pinkie finger, the other is about a third of the outside on the thumb side.

use a curving guideline for the tops of the knuckles and the fingertips round off the knuckles and the fingertips.

the wrist gets wider further away from the wrist.

there are wrinkles in the palm. there are three wrinkles in the wrist there are wrinkles across the knuckles.

use shading to give it roundness.

the edge of the palm is not straight, but has a fold that sticks outward. the base of the wrist curves in a little before it meets the wrist

the thumb can cover the first finger or the first two fingers. the outside of the thumb is three straight lines
