

Analysis

Character & Literary Device

Your group has been assigned a literary device. You will now explore the meaning and varied uses of this device in children's books and on the internet.

I. Read one of the books in the Literary Device Bag.

A. Answer the following questions:

1. Who are the characters in the story?

Character	Description
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____

2. Character voice:

How do they "sound" (tone, inflection, rate, diction)?

How do you know this?

_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____

3. If there does not seem to be a distinction, make up a voice for the character

II. Reread the story using the voices you have assigned to the characters.

A. Practice reading the book with the voice a few times.