

Make a point

Here is a list of ideas for a piece of writing about travel in towns and cities.

- Improved public transport would make our towns and cities safer places.
- Travel in towns and cities is sometimes slow and difficult.
- Pedestrians and cyclists have to breathe polluted air.
- Public transport reduces air pollution.
- Private cars carry only a few people.
- Buses and trains can carry many people.
- Many towns and cities are too noisy and dirty.
- Cars carrying a few people can cause traffic jams.
- Walking and biking are good exercise.
- Public transport saves fuel.

Sort these points into a logical order by giving each one a number. Then use the points to write one or two paragraphs about travel in towns and cities.

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....