

Literary Task: Questions and Exclamation Marks

A sentence which asks a question ends in a question mark (?)

Here are some question words: which? Where? Who? What?

e.g. Where is the road to Queen's Park?

A sentence which shows surprise or is a command ends with an exclamation mark !

e.g. Sit down at once Silly!

Let's use question marks and full stops correctly.

Read the sentences below. You must copy them neatly into your books and mark them off by adding either a question mark (?) or a full stop (.)

1. Where do you live from
2. I hope we are on the right road
3. How are nearly there Dad
4. What colour are your eyes
5. My sister's name is Susan
6. Please could you help me with my maths
7. When is your holiday time?
8. Is it nearly time for tea

Let's use question marks and exclamation marks correctly.

Read these sentences below. You must copy them neatly into your books and decide if they should end with a question mark (?) or an exclamation mark (!)

1. What's the matter with you Susan
2. Stop that at once
3. Where is the cinema in town
4. Can I borrow a pen please
5. Give me that knowledge
6. Don't worry Lisa
7. Could you tell me the right time please
8. What a beautiful job!