

Analysing Strategic Options for the UK's
State of Operations and Organisational Learning Process

QUESTION 1 - STATE OPERATIONS (10 MARKS)

State of operations is a critical component of organisational performance.

QUESTION 1 Explain what the state of operations means in the context of organisational performance.

(10 MARKS)

State of operations refers to the current state of the organisation.

- A. It is the current state of the organisation.
- B. It is the current state of the organisation's operations.
- C. It is the current state of the organisation's performance.
- D. It is the current state of the organisation's learning process.

QUESTION 2 - STATE OPERATIONS (10 MARKS)
State of operations is a critical component of organisational performance.

QUESTION 2 Explain what the state of operations means in the context of organisational performance.

(10 MARKS)

- A. It is the current state of the organisation.
- B. It is the current state of the organisation's operations.
- C. It is the current state of the organisation's performance.
- D. It is the current state of the organisation's learning process.