

HARRIET TUBMAN
 Harriet Tubman was born in 1820. She was born a slave. Her whole family was slaves. They worked for the same master. When some of her sisters were traded, she decided to escape.
 Harriet went to Pennsylvania because it was a free state. She worked with other people who did not like slavers. Together, they created the Underground Railroad. This was a set of safe trails and houses. Harriet used them to help slaves safely escape. Harriet went back to

HARRIET TUBMAN
 Birth Year: _____
 Traits: _____

 Motivations: _____

 Interesting Fact: _____

HARRIET TUBMAN
 How do you feel that Harriet Tubman earned the title of "Conductor of the Underground Railroad"?
 Supply your answer by combining your thinking with evidence from the text.

Mary McLeod Bethune
 Mary McLeod Bethune was born in the late 1800s. She was born in South Carolina. Mary loved to learn. She wanted to be a teacher.
 Mary went to college. She became a teacher. Mary taught in Georgia and Florida. She was a well-known teacher who people loved!
 Mary wanted to build a school. She needed money to do it. Mary had many people help her. She was the first woman to lead a women's college for black

Mary McLeod Bethune
 She wanted to be a _____
 Famous for: _____

 Her legacy lives on because _____

 Traits: _____

Mary McLeod Bethune
 How do Mary McLeod Bethune make education her life work?
 Cite evidence to explain.

Sojourner Truth
 Sojourner Truth was born in 1797. She was a slave in New York. Her original name was Isabella Baumfree. She was first owned by a Dutch family. As a young child, she only knew how to speak the Dutch language. She married another slave and had five children.
 One day, Isabella escaped from her masters. Later she had journalists. She just walked away with one of her babies. She found a kind family called the Van Waggeners. They were

Sojourner Truth
 Real Name: _____
 Birth Year: _____ From: _____
 Famous For: _____

 Accomplishment: _____

 Life Struggles: _____

Sojourner Truth
 Do you think Sojourner was a brave person? Cite evidence from the text to support your answer.

Frederick Douglass
 Frederick Douglass was born in 1818. He was born a slave and had to work hard. A wife of a master taught him how to read and write. He started reading even though it was illegal for slaves to read. He taught other slaves to read.
 Frederick Douglass escaped with the help of a free woman. Her name was Anna Murray. Frederick and Anna got married.
 Frederick Douglass was a very wise and brave man.

Frederick Douglass
 Birth Year: _____
 Famous For: _____

 Worked As: _____

Frederick Douglass
 Why do you think Frederick's books and journals could change people's beliefs about slavery?

Ruby Bridges
 Ruby Bridges was one of the first black children to attend an all-white school. It was in New Orleans. She was born in 1954.
 On Ruby's first day, there was a big crowd outside of the school. Some people did not want Ruby to go. They held signs in protest. President Eisenhower sent U.S. Marshals. They kept her safe. They protected her from harm.
 Ruby finished school. She was a travel agent. Ruby did that for 15 years. She now has an organization. It is the Ruby Bridges Foundation. It teaches people values. The values are respect, tolerance, and appreciation of differences.

Ruby Bridges
 Birth Year: _____
 Known For: _____

 Created the: _____

 Obstacles: _____

 Interesting Fact: _____

Ruby Bridges
 Why do you think Ruby created the Ruby Bridges Foundation?
 Provide evidence from the text to support your answer.

