

Read about Denny's and answering the questions about the text:

Denny's is a popular restaurant. They are in all the big cities in America. They serve breakfast, lunch, and dinner. They are open 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. To please their customers, Denny's announced a special event. On Monday after the Super Bowl, they offered a free breakfast to everyone in America. The free meal was a Grand Slam breakfast. The breakfast was from 6 a.m. to 2 p.m. They told everyone to bring their appetites, not their cash. The delicious meal included pancakes, eggs, bacon, and sausages. People got up at the crack of dawn to beat the rush. They say there's no such thing as a free lunch. But Denny's is showing America that there is such a thing as a free breakfast.

1. When are Denny's open? _____

2. What foods did the free delicious meal include? _____

3. When were they serving the free breakfast? _____

4. Why did people get up at the crack of dawn? _____
