

► Exercise – Reading/Listening – 4 items (10')

Transitive and Intransitive verbs

► Look at the verbs in the box and read the short paragraph to see how they are used.
Think of the difference between a transitive verb (one that needs an object) and an intransitive verb (one that does not need an object). Think of the difference between "transitive" and "intransitive" that refers to a direct object.

► Analyze the following sentences. Think about: subject, indirect object, direct object, etc. Do you get confused? Write or underline something you need.

- (1) The price of gold was falling.
- (2) The price was falling.
- (3) Adam found the medicine easy.

► What verb with an object? What an object?

► Write (include the verb and its object) on these sentences (circled):

- (4) The price was falling as a good profession this year.
- (5) Tom, knowing the picture, quickly drove and saw the picture.
- (6) It was a hot summer day, and the people were ready. (The world was.)
- (7) How can you find them?
- (8) In fact, if you wish to see the best work, you can find them there.
- (9) How did you find them?
