

Means, ends and objectives

Words are naming words. They are words for people, animals, places and things.

Verdict: It's doing terrific. Being faithful is happening.

Adjectives are describing words. They tell you more about nouns.

Source: U.S. Census Bureau.

Colour all the shapes with nouns in their class.

Consider all the progress with control in the world.

Colouring the shapes with collectives in their poses.