

imperatives : How to make Chinese Dumplings

Name: _____

Date: _____

The verb imperatives (you'll find them in the English grammar book) are used to give instructions, to tell someone to do something or to tell someone to stop doing something. Here are some examples.

Play	Write	Listen	Close	Miss
Go	Stop	Go on	Fill	Start
Play	Call	Play	Buy	Prepare
Shut	Put	Stop

_____ the ingredients.

_____ the fillings.

_____ flour with water in a bowl

_____ a ball of dough

_____ dough for 15 minutes.

_____ dough for 30 minutes.

_____ dough into 4 pieces.

_____ a hole so dough becomes a doughnut.

_____ the doughnut to make a noodle

_____ 1 inch pieces/roll the noodle _____ pieces into 3 inch circles.

_____ filling in centre _____ dumplings around filling _____ dumplings to close _____ dumplings in flour

_____ dumplings for 5 minutes.

_____ dumplings in bowl to serve _____ dumplings in soy sauce, chilli oil or rice vinegar