

Simplest: Read and discuss each of a longer section. Cards 1-4 are about the Problem, being described, how the story develops, as the story comes to life. While you read, do the most interesting part.

1. In the first half of the story, how does the author describe the story? (What is the story about?)

.....

2. How are the characters interacting? (What are they doing?) What are the characters' goals? (What do they want?)

.....

3. What is the author's attitude toward the characters? (What is the author's opinion of the characters?) What is the author's opinion of the story?

.....

4. How is the author's attitude toward the characters? (What is the author's opinion of the characters?) What is the author's opinion of the story?

.....

5. How is the author's attitude toward the characters? (What is the author's opinion of the characters?) What is the author's opinion of the story?

.....

6. How is the author's attitude toward the characters? (What is the author's opinion of the characters?) What is the author's opinion of the story?

.....

7. How is the author's attitude toward the characters? (What is the author's opinion of the characters?) What is the author's opinion of the story?

.....

8. How is the author's attitude toward the characters? (What is the author's opinion of the characters?) What is the author's opinion of the story?

.....

9. How are the characters interacting? (What are they doing?) What are the characters' goals? (What do they want?)

.....