
Read!

Malik loves football. He watches it on TV. He plays every day at school, and he is a football player. Malik has two football problems. Playing in his team. When Malik gets home from school, the first thing he does is change into a football shirt and go to his bed and rest. He is always asking his coach to play with him in his team.

What is the main idea?

1. Malik likes to play with his team.
2. Malik loves football.

Write! _____