

www.ck12.org/lookup/lookup.asp

Answers

1. Tenses a verb: past or pres. (two: past tense)
2. Subject pronouns (I, you, he, she)
3. Indefinite pronoun: a noun phrase to show another name for a person, place, thing, etc. which is unknown.
4. The part of speech that describes how, whether, or where things occur.

Answers

1. Tenses a verb: past or pres.
2. Is used to refer to the subject of a sentence (I, you, he, she, it).
3. Is used to describe a noun or pronoun to another word in the sentence (where, when).
4. Is used to show how or where things occur.
5. Describes how things occur.