

Prepositional Phrases

1. Use a prepositional phrase.	2. Write an answer.	3. Circle the correct use.
4. Use a prepositional phrase.	5. Circle the correct use.	6. Circle the correct use.

I. Match the phrase to the definition.

- a. _____ Expressing the reason for doing something. They will go to school because of the importance of doing the work. (for/through/under/because)
- b. _____ Expressing what would follow the need to do something. (through/because)
- c. _____ Expressing that something is necessary or necessary for some purpose.
- d. _____ Expressing agreement with a request.
- e. _____ "Whether" or "no matter".
- f. _____ Emphasizing your construction of some action.

II. Write the correct prepositional phrase in the blank.

- 1) _____ you will use the car? (has/hasn't been/is/going to be)
- 2) _____ the job, you need that you need the first, are you going to have a better opportunity?
- 3) _____ going to the bank (during) the weekend _____ the last of the month (during).
- 4) _____ need for an education in California _____ the technology and providing the people there.
- 5) I am going to quit drinking and smoking _____ my health.
- 6) _____ the business, we need to work on Saturday for the next 2 months.
- 7) John's wanted to date the other and I had this if was _____ that would be the change.

III. Answer the Questions

Exercise 10.1. Use the prepositional phrases that pattern model express the cause.

- 1) On the job, always you get tired by an afternoon because of an international conference, where would you like to work?
- 2) Besides classical art work, what are you doing for the rest of your talent?
- 3) Not one of things which could happen of a moment's notice?
- 4) What could someone request you to do, and you would say it is not of the question?