

Verbs and Prepositions 2

Some verbs are often followed by prepositions:

I looked for gloves - where have the gloves gone? for, without, with,

Sometimes there is more than one correct preposition:

He excited because he's going to play for a football team.
for, with confidence,
at my favorite school.

Complete these sentences by yourself. Then write complete answers.

1. The building was built _____.

2. The student looked _____.

3. He decided he was done _____.

4. Please let go of the book I lent _____.

5. She ran to the window and looked _____.

6. She was able to run _____.

7. The child was suddenly excited _____.

8. Look at the fish that I caught _____.

9. Immediately, I felt very confused _____.

10. These cookies are made _____.