

Essay Format Template

Title Name
Class
Instructor
Date

Introduction One

Start your INTRODUCTION here. Make sure that your introduction includes the prompt or question, answer it developed as question, integrated together smoothly support your answer. This is called your Thesis Statement.

Start your BODY PARAGRAPH here. Make sure that you start with a topic sentence. The topic sentence should be one or just two words from the Thesis Statement include a complete sentence. Add details relevant to the topic sentence. Add imagery and figurative language. Similes, metaphors, idioms, dialogues, and hyperboles will make your essay more interesting and add depth.

Start your SECOND BODY PARAGRAPH here. Make sure that you start with a topic sentence. The topic sentence should be one or just two words from the Thesis Statement include a complete sentence. Add details relevant to the topic sentence. Add imagery and figurative language. Similes, metaphors, idioms, dialogues, and hyperboles will make your essay more interesting and add depth.

Start your CONCLUSION here. Summarize your introduction and the statement in other words, and state a relevant saying why this topic is of such importance that you would write about it.