

Abstract

Abstract

Within the community to the person who made them. Some names are used there that were

- John Harrell
- John Barlow
- Philip Kelley
- (X) Joseph Pickett
- George Johnson
- (X) Alfred Steinhilber

1. "To get strong, you have to get strong." _____
2. "It doesn't matter if it's true or not true. It's what people are saying that's important!" _____
3. "A rule is a rule. It isn't always easy". _____
4. "I can't speak fine an English. What can you say about a dog? Besides, it's just a matter of opinion, anyway!" _____
5. "One has to be cynical and firm. As well as cheerful and fun. That's the key with children these days." _____
6. "What does the kid know other than his own, natural-born patriotism? And then this cheap of a teacher comes along and equates it?" _____
7. "Then Joe Pollard (teacher) principal) felt compelled to suspend him for a bit, something I don't believe is productive." _____
8. "I wish people would see what they mean!" _____

The author of Call has used a documentary novel because he develops the plot through a series of diary entries, letters, letters, telegrams and transcripts.

Draw a line of connection between the following terms and the correct definition.

- | | |
|--|------------|
| 1. A brief communication that gives directions or information. | Diary |
| 2. The exact copy or reproduction of the exact words spoken | Memorandum |
| 3. A written or printed communication addressed to a person or organization and usually transmitted by mail. | Form |
| 4. A written fact of knowledge | Telegram |
| 5. A daily record of personal experiences, observations and feelings. | Manuscript |
| 6. A message transmitted by a system that converts a coded message into electric impulses and sends it to a distant receiver | Letter |