

Our class has crashed on a deserted island. While we have more than enough resources, we must survive together. Consider the following questions.

1. Should either individual(s) or the government of your DC control the police force, and what rights/ responsibilities would you have? Why?

2. Who would have the right to sign? The strongest? The weakest? How? Why?

3. Should you have any rights? What would they be? How would the other individuals exercise your rights?
