

Name: _____

Couplets

Twinkle, Twinkle Little Star
How I wonder what you are.

The two lines above rhyme. Star and are rhyme. Two lines that end in a rhyme are called a couplet.

You can write a couplet about anything!

Do you know mu dog named Spot?

How he loves the ball he's got!

My favorite season, the best of all,

Is the one we call the fall.

Underline the rhyming words in each couplet above. Now you write a couplet. Use the rhyming words pig and wig.
