

	No
Yes		Yes
100% 75% 50%		50% 75% 100%

Module Level 1 – After Year 1

Thoughts on working

Martha, who lives in a rural area, had a difficult time adjusting to the city. She found it challenging to find a job that suited her skills and interests. She felt that the city was a different world and she was not sure if she could handle it.

- 1.1. Martha, who lives in a rural area, had a difficult time adjusting to the city. She found it challenging to find a job that suited her skills and interests. She felt that the city was a different world and she was not sure if she could handle it.
- 1.2. Martha, who lives in a rural area, had a difficult time adjusting to the city. She found it challenging to find a job that suited her skills and interests. She felt that the city was a different world and she was not sure if she could handle it.
- 1.3. Martha, who lives in a rural area, had a difficult time adjusting to the city. She found it challenging to find a job that suited her skills and interests. She felt that the city was a different world and she was not sure if she could handle it.
- 1.4. Martha, who lives in a rural area, had a difficult time adjusting to the city. She found it challenging to find a job that suited her skills and interests. She felt that the city was a different world and she was not sure if she could handle it.
- 1.5. Martha, who lives in a rural area, had a difficult time adjusting to the city. She found it challenging to find a job that suited her skills and interests. She felt that the city was a different world and she was not sure if she could handle it.

1.6. Organization

1.7. Organization

1. How does Martha describe her organization?
2. What is Martha's role in her organization?
3. What is Martha's role in her organization?
4. What is Martha's role in her organization?
5. What is Martha's role in her organization?