

VII. Occasional Changes to the Schedule

- Any changes to the schedule must be made:
  - In writing
  - Verbally
  - Can be made through E-mail
- The person requesting a change must provide at least _____ hours/days notice.
(circle one)
- Visits may be rescheduled as follows: _____
_____
_____

IX. Parent-Child Communication

- While visiting or residing with one parent, the children are free to call the other parent at any time.
- While visiting or residing with one parent, the children are free to call the other parent during the hours of _____.
- The children may also contact the other parent through E-mail.
- Additional procedures/rules to be followed regarding communication: _____
_____
_____
_____

X. Decision Making

Day to Day Decision Making

- The parent in whose care the children are at any given time will be responsible for the day-to-day decisions that need to be made during their time together.
- This includes decisions regarding emergency health care and safety concerns.

Major Decisions

- Both parent will collaborate on major decisions, such as education, non-emergency healthcare, and religious upbringing.
- _____ will have the sole decision-making authority when it comes to making major decisions such as education, non-emergency healthcare, and religious upbringing.