

PASSIVE VERBS

(Remember: subject + auxiliary + verb + verb + object)

Form	Structure	Example
Present Simple	Subject + auxiliary + verb + object	Family is always well-behaved.
Present Continuous	Subject + am + verb + object	My wife is working at the bank.
Present Perfect	Subject + auxiliary + verb + object	The office has got the report finished.
Present Perfect Continuous	Subject + auxiliary + verb + object	She has been going to her fitness classes.
Future Simple	Subject + auxiliary + verb + object	They will be celebrating their wedding.
Future Continuous	Subject + auxiliary + verb + object	My children will be going to school in 2020.
Future Perfect	Subject + auxiliary + verb + object	He will have finished his homework by 8pm.
Future Perfect Continuous	Subject + auxiliary + verb + object	She will have been waiting for you since 5pm.
Present Passive	Subject + auxiliary + verb + object	My house is being decorated every day.
Present Continuous Passive	Subject + auxiliary + verb + object	The house has already been decorated every day.
Present Perfect Passive	Subject + auxiliary + verb + object	The house has been decorated every day.
Present Perfect Continuous Passive	Subject + auxiliary + verb + object	The house has been being decorated every day.
Future Passive	Subject + auxiliary + verb + object	The house will be decorated every day.
Future Continuous Passive	Subject + auxiliary + verb + object	The house will be being decorated every day.
Future Perfect Passive	Subject + auxiliary + verb + object	The house will have been decorated every day.
Future Perfect Continuous Passive	Subject + auxiliary + verb + object	The house will have been being decorated every day.

See 1.1.1.1 for more details.