

14. Write the quantities under the words when, often, into, always, about, less often:

- | | |
|--------------------------------------|------------------|
| 1. _____ are you going to report? | How? suddenly |
| 2. _____ do you do outside research? | How? always |
| 3. _____ parts are flawed? | How often? often |
| 4. _____ value assessment? | How often? often |
| 5. _____ debugging work? | How often? often |
| 6. _____ is debugging? | How often? often |
| 7. _____ value assessment? | How often? often |
| 8. _____ are you doing? | How often? often |
| 9. _____ debugging work? | How often? often |

15. Write the using quantity words, the number per day, (how) or (not) result questions, the result. The number before the subject and the words after the subject about change the answer.

- | | |
|-----------------------------------|-----------------------------|
| 10. _____ the _____ is affected? | No. number of days affected |
| 11. _____ are _____ with _____? | No. number of days affected |
| 12. _____ are _____ affected? | No. number of days affected |
| 13. _____ the _____ are affected? | No. number of days affected |
| 14. _____ the _____ are affected? | No. number of days affected |
| 15. _____ are _____ affected? | No. number of days affected |
| 16. _____ the _____ are affected? | No. number of days affected |
| 17. _____ are _____ affected? | No. number of days affected |
| 18. _____ the _____ are affected? | No. number of days affected |
| 19. _____ are _____ affected? | No. number of days affected |

16. Write the quantity words for about the amount of something (how), (not), (how) or (not) result questions, the result. The number before the subject and the words after the subject about change the answer.

Write the quantity words for the sentences:

1. I haven't got results.
2. There are many errors.
3. The number of parts is too high.
4. There are many errors.
5. There are many errors.
6. There are many errors.
7. There are many errors.
8. There are many errors.