

Reading Comprehension Test

Read the passages in the table below.

1. The passage is a report on the results of a survey of parents' attitudes towards their children's television viewing. It is a report on the results of a survey of parents' attitudes towards their children's television viewing. It is a report on the results of a survey of parents' attitudes towards their children's television viewing. It is a report on the results of a survey of parents' attitudes towards their children's television viewing.

2. The passage is a report on the results of a survey of parents' attitudes towards their children's television viewing. It is a report on the results of a survey of parents' attitudes towards their children's television viewing. It is a report on the results of a survey of parents' attitudes towards their children's television viewing.

3. The passage is a report on the results of a survey of parents' attitudes towards their children's television viewing. It is a report on the results of a survey of parents' attitudes towards their children's television viewing. It is a report on the results of a survey of parents' attitudes towards their children's television viewing.

4. The passage is a report on the results of a survey of parents' attitudes towards their children's television viewing. It is a report on the results of a survey of parents' attitudes towards their children's television viewing. It is a report on the results of a survey of parents' attitudes towards their children's television viewing.

5. The passage is a report on the results of a survey of parents' attitudes towards their children's television viewing. It is a report on the results of a survey of parents' attitudes towards their children's television viewing. It is a report on the results of a survey of parents' attitudes towards their children's television viewing.

1. Match the words with their definitions according to the text.

- 1. television
- 2. screen
- 3. computer
- 4. equipment
- 5. use
- 6. general entertainment, used as a television
- 7. used to watch television through a screen
- 8. screen image
- 9. television broadcasting
- 10. television-related advertising program

2. Find synonyms in the following words.

- 1. television set
- 2. TV's main set
- 3. general entertainment
- 4. TV's main set
- 5. television
- 6. screen image

3. Choose the correct answer according to the following questions.

- 1. The passage is a report on the results of a survey of parents' attitudes towards their children's television viewing. It is a report on the results of a survey of parents' attitudes towards their children's television viewing. It is a report on the results of a survey of parents' attitudes towards their children's television viewing.
- 2. The passage is a report on the results of a survey of parents' attitudes towards their children's television viewing. It is a report on the results of a survey of parents' attitudes towards their children's television viewing. It is a report on the results of a survey of parents' attitudes towards their children's television viewing.
- 3. The passage is a report on the results of a survey of parents' attitudes towards their children's television viewing. It is a report on the results of a survey of parents' attitudes towards their children's television viewing. It is a report on the results of a survey of parents' attitudes towards their children's television viewing.
- 4. The passage is a report on the results of a survey of parents' attitudes towards their children's television viewing. It is a report on the results of a survey of parents' attitudes towards their children's television viewing. It is a report on the results of a survey of parents' attitudes towards their children's television viewing.
- 5. The passage is a report on the results of a survey of parents' attitudes towards their children's television viewing. It is a report on the results of a survey of parents' attitudes towards their children's television viewing. It is a report on the results of a survey of parents' attitudes towards their children's television viewing.
- 6. The passage is a report on the results of a survey of parents' attitudes towards their children's television viewing. It is a report on the results of a survey of parents' attitudes towards their children's television viewing. It is a report on the results of a survey of parents' attitudes towards their children's television viewing.
- 7. The passage is a report on the results of a survey of parents' attitudes towards their children's television viewing. It is a report on the results of a survey of parents' attitudes towards their children's television viewing. It is a report on the results of a survey of parents' attitudes towards their children's television viewing.
- 8. The passage is a report on the results of a survey of parents' attitudes towards their children's television viewing. It is a report on the results of a survey of parents' attitudes towards their children's television viewing. It is a report on the results of a survey of parents' attitudes towards their children's television viewing.
- 9. The passage is a report on the results of a survey of parents' attitudes towards their children's television viewing. It is a report on the results of a survey of parents' attitudes towards their children's television viewing. It is a report on the results of a survey of parents' attitudes towards their children's television viewing.
- 10. The passage is a report on the results of a survey of parents' attitudes towards their children's television viewing. It is a report on the results of a survey of parents' attitudes towards their children's television viewing. It is a report on the results of a survey of parents' attitudes towards their children's television viewing.

4. Answer the questions.

- 1. What are the main findings of the survey?
- 2. How do you think the results of the survey will affect the way parents view their children's television viewing?
- 3. What advice would you give parents based on the results of the survey?