

Plural Possessive Nouns

A possessive noun shows ownership.
A plural possessive noun that ends in s is made by adding an apostrophe (') at its end.

Both girls' noses are red.

Circle the plural possessive nouns.

doctors cats' farmer's books' blankets papers' mouse's singers floor's computers'
cities hand's cookies' houses' glasses

Rewrite each sentence to include a plural possessive noun.

1. The desks of the students are new. The students' desks are new.
2. The parents of my friends had a bake sale. _____

3. I mowed the lawn of my neighbors. _____

4. She knows all the names of the actors. _____

5. The horns of the cars are loud. _____
6. Girls invaded the treehouse of the boys. _____
