

Prose/Argument Agreement

1. Every summer the community youth group devotes a week of _____ time to work in an economically depressed area of the country.
A. its
B. their
C. her
2. This year the youths met with a neighboring community group and joined _____ work force for a week.
A. their
B. its
C. he
3. While they were there, the teens spent part of _____ days working on building, painting, and repairing projects.
A. her
B. its
C. their
4. Each group member worked with _____ leader on a special project from morning until night.
A. his or her
B. their
C. its
5. At lunch, each teen ate lunch and enjoyed a period of free time for _____ own personal enrichment.
A. his or her
B. their
C. its
6. Students who want to be successful need skills in _____ activities.
A. their
B. our
C. his or her
7. Some of the writers waited patiently for _____ name to be called.
A. its
B. their
C. his
8. Students who want help should ask _____ teacher for suggestions.
A. his
B. its
C. their