

The statements in Column B are responding to the statements in Column A. Fill each line in column B, under the word that carries the tone (gentle) stress. Fill in as an answer indicating the intonation pattern.

A

B

1a That's wonderful news! I thought you'd be pleased.

1b That's terrible news! I thought you'd be pleased.

2a You said it would be easy getting tickets. I told you it would be difficult.

2b I have no problems getting tickets. I told you it would be difficult.

3a That'll be no use for them before we get there. I should have told you.

3b That'll be no use for them unless you change. I should have told you.

4a Jack just gave me back the $100 he owes me. It's about time you repaid me.

4b Jack's owed me $100 for over a year now. It's about time you repaid me.

5a You should have been very polite when it was said she reported his death prematurely. Yes, she's always reported the best in her line.

5b You should have been very polite when it was said she reported his death. Yes, she's always reported the best in her line.