

Complex Sentences

Choose the best conjunction (ie connective or joining word) from the list below to join together the following short sentences. Only use each conjunction once and watch out for the meaning!

where | before | after | until | since | when whenever | while | although | though | whether

For example: I like to swim. I eat breakfast.

I like to swim before I eat breakfast.

For example: I want to go to the cinema. I am quite tired.

I want to go to the cinema, although I am quite tired.

1. It was definitely this shop. I lost my credit card.

2. He was always very quiet. His sister was the opposite.

3. You set out the parts. I'm trying to work out the instructions.

4. I will not sing tonight. My agent checks the contract.

5. We will still have a picnic. The weather's good or bad.

6. We go for a lot of walks. The weather is good.

1. He checked that the road was clear. He drove away.

2. It was extremely dark. The lights were switched off.

3. I can't be certain. We may change our plans if the weather is good.

4. The girls were eating burgers. We saw them at lunchtime.

5. I thought that he was the thief. I can't really be sure.

6. They have been much happier. They won the lottery last year.
