

6-3: Change active to passive and score a point

Peter reads a lot of books	Suzy kissed John.	The police caught the dangerous spy.	John Wilkes Booth killed Abraham Lincoln
Karl drives the Ferrari	The athlete prefers the 100-metre dash.	He never cleans the bathroom	She always made the soup.
The students did their homework.	Gillian wrote an excellent essay.	The choir sang many songs	Sam turned on the light.
The people of Athens forced Socrates to drink hemlock poison.	Henry VIII reformed the Church of England	The archer shot the king in his eye.	The student copied the essay
The minister hurried through the proposal	We waste a lot of time.	She lost her earrings.	John found his sister's earrings
The Indian threw his tomahawk.	Almost everybody in the class celebrated Christmas	The photographer took all the pictures.	The thief returned the car.
Every morning Jim ate cornflakes.	The stewardess served lunch.	The pirates boarded the merchant vessel.	The actor played the role of Macbeth.
My wife placed the flowers in a vase	Wayne Rooney scores most of the goals for England.	The swimmer swam the Channel	In 1939 Germany invaded Poland.