

4. Read carefully. Write the correct form of the words in brackets.

- 1) My parents have high _____ of me but I don't think I can live up to it. (expect)
- 2) The politician was criticised for a lack of _____ . (logical)
- 3) The _____ about Friday night in London might not be done with a lot of _____ and encouragement. (convince)
- 4) I couldn't get _____ to do the outdoor 'Paw' game. (persuade and convince) (persuade)
- 5) The comedian's relationship with his wife _____ . He was always there for her. (strong)
- 6) I appreciate you _____ in organizing the conference. I don't know what would have been without your help. (assist)
- 7) Because my father had such good ideas, she has called for more people there all year. (inspire)
- 8) Even though he is 18 he still behaves like a child, he is really _____ . (childish)
- 9) I consider wearing a blue uniform with a name tag to be _____ . (like you did not expect)
- 10) He has three good _____ in chess. He can take responsibility for his actions. (strategy)
- 11) The student showed that he has a _____ education. (comprehensive)
- 12) My mother always thinks that you _____ at a moment when I can't understand a thing. (interrupt)
- 13) She has an _____ attitude towards her work. She is very strict with her staff. (impartial)
- 14) _____ in my opinion, when you choose a profession, you have entered the game and you should stick to it. (irrevocable)
- 15) Each of us should be in _____ of being an excellent student. There are reports and hard working. (qualify)
- 16) _____ was surprised after the community vote to let the city be the city. (disappoint)
- 17) My sister was still better than in particular in some of her skills. (superior)
- 18) It is important _____ and should work for the city. Because you'll meet with all your people. (contribute)