

Name: _____ # _____ Class: _____

VS.6a People Search

Directions: You must find nine different people to answer the questions below. They should write it on your paper and then print their name beneath.

At the turn of the 20 th century, Virginia transition from a _____ agricultural society to an _____ industrial society. Student: _____	Old-fashioned methods of _____ were too slow and required many workers. Student: _____	Improvements in _____, such as streetcars, caused Virginia's cities to grow. Student: _____
People began to move all across the state of Virginia because of all the new _____ opportunities. Student: _____	Improved methods of transportation also encouraged the growth of _____ in southwest Virginia. Student: _____	_____ experienced much growth due to the large number of government jobs located in that region. Student: _____
Both Northern Virginia and the Coastal Plain Region grew due to an _____ increase in _____ industries. Student: _____	_____ created the League of Nations, an organization of nations working together to achieve world peace. Student: _____	_____’s peace plan offered money, machinery, food, and technical equipment to the ravaged countries after the war. Student: _____

Name: _____ # _____ Class: _____

VS.6a People Search

Directions: You must find nine different people to answer the questions below. They should write it on your paper and then print their name beneath.

At the turn of the 20 th century, Virginia transition from a _____ agricultural society to an _____ industrial society. Student: _____	Old-fashioned methods of _____ were too slow and required many workers. Student: _____	Improvements in _____, such as streetcars, caused Virginia's cities to grow. Student: _____
People began to move all across the state of Virginia because of all the new _____ opportunities. Student: _____	Improved methods of transportation also encouraged the growth of _____ in southwest Virginia. Student: _____	_____ experienced much growth due to the large number of government jobs located in that region. Student: _____
Both Northern Virginia and the Coastal Plain Region grew due to an _____ increase in _____ industries. Student: _____	_____ created the League of Nations, an organization of nations working together to achieve world peace. Student: _____	_____’s peace plan offered money, machinery, food, and technical equipment to the ravaged countries after the war. Student: _____