

Math: Probability

Name _____ Date _____

Probability

When determining the probability of something happening, we can use words or numbers.

Look at these words and then try to match them to the statements below. Briefly explain your answer on the line below.

Certain: Something that will definitely happen.

Likely: Something that has a very good chance of happening.

Even Chance: Something that will happen half the time.

Unlikely: Something that might happen but not very often.

Impossible: Something that cannot happen.

1. You will not come to school next Saturday. _____

2. You will have dinner tonight. _____

3. _____ will be a sunny day. _____

4. It will rain tomorrow. _____

5. You will fly in a rocket to Jupiter next week. _____

6. You will do all your homework on time! _____

7. The Dallas Cowboys will win the Super Bowl. _____

8. You will toss "heads" on a coin. _____

9. You will roll a six on a die. _____

10. You will learn another language one day. _____

© abcteach.com