Beginning

Middle

End

The form consists of three large, rounded rectangular boxes with dashed outlines, arranged horizontally. These boxes are intended for students to write their descriptions of the beginning, middle, and end of a story. Above each box is a label: 'Beginning' for the first box, 'Middle' for the second, and 'End' for the third. A horizontal line connects the top of these three boxes, with short vertical lines extending down from the center of each box to the top edge of the line.
