

NAME _____
TEST ON EARTHQUAKES
CHAPTER 5

NAME: _____

irections:
CIRCLE THE LETTER NEXT TO THE CORRECT ANSWER

1. Igneous and hot springs are produced by:
a. evaporation b. convection c. volcanoes
2. The layer below the crust is called:
a. core b. mantle c. inner core
3. Magma from below comes to the surface of the earth because of the activity of:
a. convection b. release c. tidal erosion
4. Shrub and broken down tree material provides fire water, which used:
a. leaves b. growing plants c. dead plants
5. Glaciers move slowly to take place:
a. where fire plants begin
b. on the sea bed
c. on the mountain top
6. The outer most part of the earth is called:
a. inner core b. mantle c. crust
7. Weathering and erosion are two processes classified as:
a. mechanical weathering
b. biological weathering
c. chemical weathering
8. A volcano which has not erupted for thousands of years can be termed:
a. dormant b. extinct c. active