

WHICH OPERATION DO YOU USE TO FIND THE ANSWER?

ADDITION	SUBTRACTION
Put together / add to / join	Take away / remove
How many ... altogether?	How many ... left?
How many ... more?	How many ... remain / are left / remaining?
How many ... have together?	How many ... do you have left?
How many ... are there?	How many ... are there / was / were / is / are / was / were / are there?
	How many ... are left?

PROBLEMS:

Write a number sentence for each word problem on the blank. Write the answer to the correct answer on the right column.

EXAMPLE 1:	SOLVE:
John has 12 sets and 15 more sets. How many sets does he have all? 12 + 15 = 27 sets	$\begin{array}{r} 12 \\ + 15 \\ \hline 27 \end{array}$
1. Dadda has a collection of birds. He has 22 birds and after some more 11 of them he has 33 birds. How many birds does he have ... ?
2. A school has 25 students. There are 10 students with books. How many don't have ... ?
3. A box has ... 20 ... and 20 ... How many ... are there ... ?	