

Consumption Standard Prices

Candy	.15	Tea/Flowerwater	$4.50
Popcorn	.10	Water	$0.25
Lumpy taffy	$25.00 or .75 each	Hot dog	$0.50
Soft drink	$1.25	Wine	$1.75
Cheese	.75	Milk	$0.50

1. You buy a bag of candy and some tea. If you have $20.00, how much change will you get back?
2. With $10.00, you buy popcorn and popcorn. How much change will you get back?
3. You buy 1 lumpy, 1 cookie, 1 pop, and 1 flowerwater for your friend's friend. If you use a $20.00 bill, how much change will you get back?
4. Your brother asks you to buy a multi-pack of hot dogs and one lumpy. If you pay $1.00, how much will the items cost? What about together? Will you have enough money to buy these items?
5. You buy 1 lumpy item and 1 popcorn. You have 20 in your pocket. Do you have enough money for these?
6. You want to buy a multi-pack of candy to take to with your class. If you pay $2.00, how much change will you get back?
7. You want to give you to the community center to get 1 bottle of water and 1 multi-pack of popcorn back home safely. If you pay you $8.00 to buy for them, how much change should you get back?
8. You buy 1 pop, 1 candy, 1 cookie, and 1 milk for your brother and yourself. If you pay $2.00, how much change should you get back?