

Simple Future Tense

We can use the simple future tense to talk about

- (1) What we think will happen in the future
e.g. A lot of people will visit country parks next month.
You will enjoy the hike tomorrow.
- (2) Plans we are making while we speak
e.g. Clare: I am tired! Will we stop soon?
Nathan: Not for a while, but I'll carry your backpack if you're tired.

Exercise

Sandy is talking to her mum about a class trip she is going on to Hoi Ha Wan Marine Park. Complete their conversation using the simple future tense.

- Sandy: I'm really looking forward to going on the trip. It (1) _____ (be) so much fun!
- Mum: (2) _____ it _____ (last) the whole day?
- Sandy: Yes. We (3) _____ (need) time to travel to the marine park and plenty of time to see everything there, so we (4) _____ (not return) till 6 p.m.
- Mum: I (5) _____ you some lunch to take then.
- Sandy: Actually, we (6) _____ probably _____ (buy) lunch in Hoi a Village.
- Mum: I see. Well, you (7) _____ (have) to pack some things to take. I (8) _____ (get) the sunscreen and a hat for you.
- Sandy: Thanks, Mum. I (9) _____ (put) them in my backpack, if I can find it!

Answer:

1. 'll be
2. 'll...last
3. 'll need
4. won't return

