

IR PRESENTS, PRINCIPAL FORMS AND THE TENSES SUMMARY

Regular Verbs
Base or Present Form: eat run teach walk	Present Participle Form: eating running teaching walking	Past Form: ate ran taught walked	Past Participle Form: eaten run taught walked
Common Irregular Verbs
be bring buy	been bringing bought brought	was were bought	been brought brought Tense Mark (to) IRREGULAR VERBS
Present Tense eat run teach walk	Present Progressive Tense: is eating are eating is teaching are teaching Past Progressive Tense: was eating were eating Future Progressive Tense: will be eating will be teaching	Past Tense ate	Future Perfect Tense: will have eaten will have taught Present Perfect Tense: has eaten has taught Future Perfect Tense: will have eaten will have taught