

Reading Workbooks

Choose 1 activity to complete on the story of the world at your table level.

Create a board game that summarizes the story elements of your story. Write directions on how to play.	Write a story essay! Create a main/thesis and write 5 story points in a descriptive or about the story.	Paint the setting. Paint the story's setting on a paper plate and write descriptive paragraphs that talk about the setting.
Create a paper doll Describe the character traits of the characters in the story. You need to at least 3 characters. Include details about your character's appearance and personality.	Create a story bag! Draw and summarize the story elements of your story: 1 picture and 1 sentence for each element: plot, characters, problems, resolution, setting, write the title and reflect on the bag and describe.	Make a shadow! Draw and summarize the story elements of your story: 1 picture and 1 sentence for each element: plot, characters, problems, resolution, setting, and title and reflect. Bring them down to a lounge.
Interview a friend! Write 10 questions for a friend to answer about their book. Write down the answers. Then, read each other your favorite parts. You need to be together!	Make a paper plate presentation that summarizes your story. You need have 1 circle. The first circle is your name, book title, author, and a picture. The other 4 circles must have a picture and a summary sentence. Then you will present to the class.	Write a long and make up a book! that shows an event from your story. The story must be at least half a page long, and you need to draw pictures and list the story steps. Then, perform it for a friend!